In his autobiography, author G. Avery Wilson recounts the first 23 years of his life and the events that potentially could have destroyed him. As his childhood, teenage years and early adulthood life unfold it is clear that devastating circumstances left him in a situation where his life was in ruins and could have very well caused him to lead a life of self-destructing behavior. Follow the author as he tells his inspirational life story and how he was able to navigate through every obstacle; rising above adversity, years of emotional, physical and sexual abuse and dysfunction to become a productive citizen; in both the civic and religious community; a happily married father of six children and a champion for the underdog. His sole desire is to bring glory to the name of Christ by sharing his testimony to encourage those who have suffered any type of abuse or tragedy to challenge themselves to turn the hardship they have experienced into a stepping stone for greatness instead of allowing it to become their weight knowing that with God all things are possible!

This title is intended for readers ages 16 and older due to the detailed and often graphic depiction of the author's life story.
